

The Bible Players

Neve Shalom
250 Grove Avenue
Metuchen, NJ

For teens grades 7-12
Tuesday, March 13
at 7 pm

This program, hosted by Neve Shalom Hebrew High and Youth Groups, is free for all teens thanks to a grant from the Barry Miller Fund.

Refreshments will be served. The event ends at 8:30pm.

info: Hazzan Sheldon Levin 732-548-2238x14 can2r11@aol.com

ANDREW DAVIES is an actor, writer, and educator working in New York City. He has performed in over 100 NYC schools with the touring educational show "The Power of One" which teaches kids how to stop bullying. He also wrote and performed in the kid's Climate Change comedy about missing snow, "Blizzard the Wizard." He has acted off-broadway, and has been a sports counselor and Skit Writer at Camp Ramah-Nyack.

AARON FRIEDMAN, since graduating from Columbia University and the Jewish Theological Seminary in 2005, has been educating Jewish youth throughout the tri-state area. A stand-up comedian, writer, entertainer--- Aaron brings all these "hats" to his kippah-clad teaching. He has been a sports counselor and Skit Writer at Camp Ramah-Nyack for 4 summers.

The Bible Players perform an Interactive Bible Comedy Show with lots of audience participation!

They use Improv games and funny scenes to teach stories from the Bible. Moses, Deborah, Jacob and Esau were never so hilarious!

They will teach the teens Improv games giving them tools to become Bible Players themselves!